IN THE POLICE COURT.

Clara Smith, the negro woman charged with robbing Dr. James Weaver, of Loa, in Second South street, several weeks ago, was held for trial under $500 bail of Justice of the Peace Smith yesterday afternoon.

B. J. Hartwell, a milkman, was convicted of selling milk below the standard on the testimony of Food Inspector Walter J. Frazier in the police court yesterday afternoon. As Hartwell had never offended before, and as he claimed that he did not know that the milk was below the standard, sentence was postponed for one month. If he has no more trouble with Food Inspector Frazier in that time, it is probable that the case will be dismissed.

Jack Sharkey and Tom Burns, accused of fighting in Commercial street on Tuesday morning, were discharged in police court yesterday morning.

W. H. Senor, who begged at back doors, was in the police court yesterday afternoon, charged with vagrancy. Senor explained that he was partly paralyzed, but was willing to work. He was formerly employed at Bingham Junction. Witnesses against him said that when he asked for food he offered to work for it. Judge Deich dismissed the case.

James Brown accused of vagrancy, was also discharged in the police court. Brown was similar to that against Senor.

W. C. T. U. MEDAL CONTEST.

Mrs. H. W. Lang Is Victor in First of the Series.

Mrs. H. W. Lang was the victor in the medal contest of the W. C. T. U., which was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. J. Snipper, 124 East Brigham street. The contest was the first of a series and the victor in each instance will be given a medal. There were seven competitors yesterday, and Mrs. Lang's subject was "Under the Shadow of a Great Curse." The judges were Mrs. A. B. Greason, Mrs. W. H. Tibbels and Mrs. E. H. Morehouse. Mrs. E. E. Shepard, state president of the order, made the presentation. Mrs. Lang's subject was a recitation during the interval while the judges were deliberating, and at the close Mrs. Snipper served refreshments.

DIVORCE AND SCOLDING

Mrs. Zelma M. Wardleigh Secures One From Husband, Other From Judge.

District Judge Howell yesterday handed down a decision in the divorce case of Zelma M. Wardleigh against her husband, Claude E. Wardleigh, granting the plaintiff a decree of divorce and at the same time the court took occasion to intimate that the granting of the divorce came about only through the construction of the law.

About two weeks ago the case was heard and was taken under advisement. The court, however, at that time expressed his disapproval of immature marriages. In his decision yesterday Judge Howell had this to say:

"I reserved my decision in this case because it was not quite clear whether the plaintiff wife should be permitted to sue a defendant husband for divorce upon the ground of non-support when she entered into the marital relationship fully cognizant of the fact that her husband would not be able to support her, knowing that he was in attendance at a medical school preparing himself for his future profession."

"After deliberation I have arrived at the conclusion that under our statute relating to divorce the plaintiff is entitled to a decree, the law having imposed an absolute duty upon the husband to support his wife, upon which the court has no right to place limitations, however reprehensible the conduct of the plaintiff, in insisting upon her legal rights, may seem to the court, and in spite of the plaintiff's disregard which she seems to manifest to her marital vows."

HARRIMAN DROPS FORCE

More Than 125 Shop Men Are Discharged—Small Repair Force Kept.

More than 125 employees of the Southern Pacific shops located in this city were thrown out of work last night. The men were notified that the lay-off was only for a week, but it is believed that it will be for a longer period and that the men will be reinstated only when the accumulation of work positively demands it.

For some time rumors have been circulated in connection with the retrenchment policy of the Harriman lines, that the shops would close. These reports brought forth vigorous denials from the railroad officials, who said that of necessity the shops must be kept in operation. In the face of these denials the action taken last night came as a complete surprise. Master Mechanic D. J. Malone said to The Herald last night that all of the shop men excepting the few that were necessary to take care of the running repairs had been laid off. He insisted that at the end of a week the men would be returned to work and that repairs would be made. He gave the depression in business as the reason for the action. This is the largest number of men thrown out of work by any company in this city for years and its effect upon the business interests is expected to be material.

SUIT AGAINST GLASMANN.

Libel Action in Which $10,000 Is Asked Begins.

Before Judge Chidester yesterday the $10,000 libel suit brought by Alice Lewis Richards against William Glasmann and the Standard Publishing company, was commenced. At the time court adjourned for the day a jury had not been secured.

Before the trial the defense filed an amended answer to the complaint. The question of libel arises from the publication of a statement purporting to be true to the effect that the mother of the plaintiff urged her to submit to certain relations with her stepfather. All told, there are actions pending against Glasmann and the Standard Publishing company in which the aggregate amount of damages asked for is $100,000 against the Standard Publishing company. For some reason the case was sent back for trial by the supreme court.

Would-Be Suicide Fined.

In police court yesterday Stella Wilson, a white woman, who about 2 o'clock in the morning attempted to commit suicide by drinking carbolic acid, was fined $10 on a charge of vagrancy. A Japanese named K. Kuroki, who was with the woman at the time she made the attempt, grabbed the bottle as the woman placed it to her lips. The contents were scattered over his face and hands, painfully burning him. The Japanese was also charged with vagrancy, but was released on $10 bail, which he forfeited.

Daughter Is Incurable.

On a complaint sworn out by Probation Officer Jacobs, Jennie Brinkerhoff had a hearing yesterday before Judge V. C. Gunnell in the juvenile court, on a charge of incurability. The girl's mother was the leading witness and gave testimony at the hearing to the effect that the girl was leading a wayward life. The mother stated that she had sent the girl on an errand about a week ago and had not seen her after that time until she saw her in the custody of the officers. After taking testimony in the case it was continued until Saturday.

PAY CARS ARRIVE—Pay cars on both the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific railroads reached Ogden yesterday and commenced the distribution of checks to the employees. The Union Pacific car will do most of its paying off today.

MINORITY NOT SATISFIED.

(Special to The Herald.) Boston, Mass., Jan. 22.—There is considerable dissatisfaction with the management of the Groux Consolidated company, which is expected to crop out at the annual meeting Feb. 6. But with Joseph L. Groux in absolute stock control it will be impossible to effect a change. There will be a large concentrated ownership represented at the meeting, secured through solicitation of proxies, which will endeavor to ascertain something about the property. ## BRYAN SPEAKS AT NASHVILLE

People Should Not Be Compelled to "Shiver When Wall Street Gamblers Get Cold."

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 22.—William J. Bryan rounded out a very busy day in Nashville with an address before a monster audience at the Ryman auditorium tonight. He was accompanied by Judge Harmon, who also spoke briefly.

Mr. Bryan in his speech tonight took occasion to say that the idea that prosperity was an inevitable result of Republican ascendancy and administration had been rudely exploded in the last few months, and contrasted the ridicule heaped upon his advocacy of the silver dollar with the prayerful anxiety with which capitalists had so recently grabbed for clearing house certificates. He scored imperialism, the costs of it and the wrong. His history of legislation against trusts and the prosecutions that have been undertaken met with hearty applause. He did not blame President Roosevelt for the panic, but scored the laws and their executors, who would compel the people "to stand and shiver every time a Wall street gambler got cold." The main idea of his speech was that the Democrats everywhere are united, while the Republicans are divided, so that the railroad regulators, the tariff reformers, the advocates of arbitration between capital and labor, and the "trust busters" are, he said, in an overwhelming majority.

He praised the new constitution and laws of Oklahoma, particularly the safeguarding of bank depositors. He predicted that this feature is going to be imitated by Kansas, Illinois and other states as soon as action may be had. He said this was the only redeeming feature of the Fowler currency bill in congress.

BOOKS CLOSE JAN. 31.

(Special to The Herald.) Boston, Mass., Jan. 22.—Nevada-Utah's transfer books close Jan. 31 and reopen Feb. 12. President Larned says that the public has been a heavy buyer on the present movement and states most emphatically that the company has not been selling stock. It may be true, however, that some large original owners, and possibly even a director, have been selling stock that showed a substantial profit. Insiders profess to be ignorant of Lawson's plans.

UNIVERSITY NOTES

Dr. W. R. Tyndale spoke to the students of the university yesterday afternoon. In his address on "First Aid to the Injured," he gave the students many remedies to use in case of an accident before the doctor can be summoned. He urged the medical students to take a three years' course in the care of the sick in the army, which will be offered at the army.

Liver Pills

Ask your doctor if he knows a better pill for a sluggish liver than Ayer's Pills. Then follow his advice. It is impossible, simply impossible, for anyone to enjoy the best of health if the bowels are constipated. Undigested material, waste products, poisonous substances, must be daily removed from the body or there will be trouble, and often serious trouble, too. Ayer's Pills aid nature, that is all. J. C.
